

ROLE PROFILE

Role Title:	Detective Constable – Rape Investigation Team (RIT)
Rank/Grade:	Detective Constable
Job Family:	Local Policing – Response - Investigations
Reporting to:	Detective Sergeant
Main purpose of the role:	To contribute to achieving the vision, purpose and values of Cambridgeshire Constabulary. The RIT team is based at the Elms, Hinchingbrooke Hospital, Huntingdon. The main purpose of this role is to investigate allegations of Rape and Honour Based Violence.

Key Accountabilities

- Collect and gather evidence and record and retain material from a range of sources in a format that is evidentially admissible to support the investigative process.
- Identify, assess and tailor engagement with victims, so that evidence is collected adequately and appropriately to support the child and achieve investigatory objectives.
- Interview witnesses, victims and suspects and gather all required evidence in relation to rape and sexual assault investigations in accordance with PIP2 standards, generating further lines of enquiry to bring offenders to justice.
- Complete risk assessments and provide appropriate support for victims during an investigation, through the formulation of a victim safety plan if required, to ensure their safety and wellbeing.
- Provide information regarding additional services available for victims, including signposting to support agencies, and explain Criminal Justice and Coronial procedures, so that they can access all available services and support.
- Carry out analysis, assess evidence, and evaluate material generated by the investigation of serious and complex crimes, so that intelligence generates evidence to identify and charge offenders.
- Work in partnerships with agencies, such as social workers, health professionals, Independent Sexual Violence Advisors (ISVAs) and Sexual Assault Referral Centres (SARCs) or local equivalents, to develop networks, enable best use of resources, enable joined up approaches to services, and drive safeguarding of victims.
- Ensure all material, including exhibits generated by serious and complex crime are seized, examined, and retained in accordance with legislation and policy, where necessary.
- Prepare reports on the outcome of investigations and manage case files within best practice procedures, such as working closely with national Rape and Serious Sexual Offences (RASSO) units for investigative and case building advice, to ensure there is an accurate audit trail.
- Contribute to the Multi Agency Public Protection Arrangements (MAPPA), providing updates on offenders, and update records to support and enable joined up public agency management of offenders.
- Work night crime duties, providing a PIP L2 investigative response to serious and complex crime overnight.
- Continuous professional development as an investigator. This will include attending any mandatory training courses and seeking out opportunities for self-development.
- Demonstrable experience of complex information gathering and problem solving
- A detailed understanding of the criminal justice system.
- Successfully complete the College of Policing Specialist Sexual Assault Investigation Development Programme (SSAIDP) and maintain the qualification.
- Experience in conducting serious and complex investigations.
- Experience in interviewing to PIP 2 standards.

ROLE PROFILE

Personal Qualities(Behavioural Competencies)

We are emotionally aware

I treat others with respect, tolerance and compassion. I acknowledge and respect a range of different perspectives, values and beliefs within the remit of the law. I remain calm and think about how to best manage the situation when faced with provocation. I understand my own emotions and I know which situations might affect my ability to deal with stress and pressure. I ask for help and support when I need it. I understand the value that diversity offers. I communicate in clear and simple language so that I can be easily understood by others. I seek to understand the thoughts and concerns of others even when they are unable to express themselves clearly.

We take ownership

I actively identify and respond to problems. I approach tasks with enthusiasm, focusing on public service excellence. I regularly seek feedback to understand the quality of my work and the impact of my behaviour. I recognise where I can help others and willingly take on additional tasks to support them, where appropriate. I give feedback to others that I make sure is understandable and constructive. I take responsibility for my own actions, I fulfil my promises and do what I say I will. I will admit if I have made a mistake and take action to rectify this. I demonstrate pride in representing the police service. I understand my own strengths and areas for development and take responsibility for my own learning to address gaps.

We are collaborative

I work cooperatively with others to get things done, willingly giving help and support to colleagues. I am approachable, and explain things well so that I generate a common understanding. I take the time to get to know others and their perspective in order to build rapport. I treat people with respect as individuals and address their specific needs and concerns. I am open and transparent in my relationships with others. I ensure I am clear and appropriate in my communications.

We deliver, support and inspire

I take on challenging tasks to help to improve the service continuously and support my colleagues. I understand how my work contributes to the wider police service. I understand it is part of my collective responsibility to deliver efficient services. I take personal responsibility for making sure that I am working effectively to deliver the best service, both individually and with others. I am conscientious in my approach, working hard to provide the best service and to overcome any obstacles that could prevent or hinder delivery. I support the efficient use of resources to create the most value and to deliver the right impact. I keep up to date with changes in internal and external environments. I am a role model for the behaviours I expect to see in others and I act in the best interests of the public and the police service.

We analyse critically

I recognise the need to think critically about issues. I value the use of analysis and testing in policing. I take in information quickly and accurately. I am able to separate information and decide whether it is irrelevant or relevant and its importance. I solve problems proactively by understanding the reasons behind them, using learning from evidence and my experiences to take action. I refer to procedures and precedents as necessary before making decisions. I weigh up the pros and cons of possible actions, thinking about potential risks and using this thinking to inform our decisions. I recognise gaps and inconsistencies in information and think about the potential implications. I make decisions in alignment with our mission, values and the Code of Ethics.

We are innovative and open-minded

I demonstrate an openness to changing ideas, perceptions and ways of working. I share suggestions with colleagues, speaking up to help improve existing working methods and practices. I constantly reflect on my own way of working and periodically review processes and procedures to make continuous improvements. I adapt to change and am flexible as the need arises while encouraging others to do the same. I learn from my experiences and do not let myself be unduly influenced by preconceptions.
